AREAS OF PRACTICE

Christopher primarily assists Jay Nutkins in the preparation of complex Crown Court cases. He has worked on cases involving gang violence, serious sexual offences, fraud and money laundering offences. He also occasionally assists with extradition cases. Prior to joining Lloyds PR Christopher worked for a charity that helped rehabilitate and improve the employability of offenders in prisons and communities. He also completed an LLM in international law and governance where his main academic interests were the horizontal effect of human rights law, international criminal law and public international law. While studying for his Bar exams Christopher volunteered with the Street Law and Urban Lawyers pro-bono projects which worked to educate young people on the criminal justice system.
